23rd Annual Early Start Symposium

Sponsored by Early Start Symposium Planning Committee Collaborative

Presenter: Mona Delahooke, Ph.D.

“Relationships First: The Pathway to Supporting Social and Emotional Development”

Providers and parents alike are on the front lines to support children’s social and emotional development. In this presentation, Dr. Delahooke will provide supportive guidance based on the latest research and neuroscience for children diagnosed with developmental and learning differences, autism, speech delays, sensory processing disorders, medical conditions and emotional or behavioral challenges. Participants will come away with practical strategies that are provided within loving and engaged relationships, providing help and hope for young children and their families.

Registration materials will be available in late summer. Scholarships will be available to parents of children receiving Early Start services who live in Amador, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Tuolumne Counties. A limited number of scholarships are available for parents of preschool age children. Registration fee for local attendees is $35; $50 for out of area.
