SPEAKER

Dr. Paula Kluth is a consultant, author, advocate, and independent scholar who works with teachers and families to provide inclusive opportunities for students with disabilities and to create more responsive and engaging schooling experiences for all learners. Paula is a former special educator who has served as a classroom teacher and inclusion facilitator. Her professional interests include differentiating instruction and inclusive schooling. She is a sought after speaker around the Nation, author or co-author of more than 15 books and products and director of a documentary film titled, "We Thought You'd Never Ask": Voices of People with Autism.

CONFERENCE TOPICS

From Text Maps to Memory Caps: Differentiating Instruction in K-12 Classrooms

This idea-filled, interactive workshop is focused on using teacher-created materials to meet the needs of all learners in inclusive schools. Educators will learn ways to engage, motivate, support, and inspire a diverse group of students by creating classroom games, study aids, visuals supports, teaching tools, and review materials. Participants will learn about strategies and adaptations and will have opportunities to try some of them out as well.
